2026 CERTIFIED FASTENER SPECIALIST™ TRAINING COURSES

LOS ANGELES, CA

SINGLE-DAY CLASSES AND PLANT TOURS FOR CERTIFIED FASTENER SPECIALIST™ DESIGNATION

Gain knowledge, build skills and advance your fastener career. Certified Fastener Specialist™ designation is the most noteworthy measurement of technical aptitude for fastener professionals. Our series of one-day classes and plant tours allows you to spread the training out over time. Classes can be taken in any order – and after completion and passing a final exam, you will be eligible for CFS designation.

It is important to be able to ask customers, purchasing agents and vendors the right questions. “We are a more sophisticated operation when we can speak to those standards and move intelligently in that space. CFS training helped get us into that process mindset.” – Caleb Zehnder, CEO/Founder, ZMG Fasteners Plus.
